ELEVENTH AMENDMENT TO THE DECLARATION OF WOODLEDGE AT WHITFORD HILLS, A PLANNED COMMUNITY

THIS ELEVENTH AMENDMENT TO THE DECLARATION of Woodledge at Whitford Hills, A Planned Community (the or this "Eleventh Amendment"), a non-profit residential planned community located in West Whiteland Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania, and commonly known and referred to as "Woodledge," is made and adopted this 20th day of May, 2015 by the members of the Woodledge at Whitford Hills Community Association (the "Association").

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, the Declaration of Woodledge at Whitford Hills, A Planned Community was recorded in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Chester County, Pennsylvania on February 12, 2007 at Deed Book 7081, Page 2034, et seq., (the "Declaration"); and

WHEREAS, all of the real property, buildings and improvements which comprise the Woodledge at Whitford Hills Community (the "Property") are also subject to the provisions of the Pennsylvania Uniform Planned Community Act, 68 Pa. C. S. A. Subsection 5101 et seq. (the "Act"); and

WHEREAS, the Association is subject to Article XIX, Section 19.01 of the Declaration, as amended, and to Subsection 5219 of the Act, which permit the Declaration to be amended by vote or agreement of Owners holding at least sixty-seven (67%) percent of the votes in the Association; and

WHEREAS, the Executive Board of the Association (the "Board") has determined that it will be beneficial to the Owners, and will substantially improve and facilitate the administration, management and operation of the Property, if the Declaration is amended through the adoption of this Eleventh Amendment; and

WHEREAS, Owners holding not less than sixty-seven (67%) percent of the votes in the Association have voted or agreed in writing to the adoption of this Eleventh Amendment; and

WHEREAS, the provisions of this Eleventh Amendment are intended to strike, supersede and replace Declaration Article III, Section 3.01 o. (Limited Common Element Definition), Declaration Article III, Section 3.01 r. (Limited Controlled Facility Definition) Declaration Exhibit "D" (Common and Limited Common Facilities), Declaration Exhibit "D" (Limited Common Elements), and the Eighth Amendment to the Declaration Exhibit "J" (Controlled Facilities and Limited Controlled Facilities), which was recorded on June 17, 2011 in Deed Book 8195 Page 1761; and

WHEREAS, the provisions of this Eleventh Amendment are intended to strike, supersede and replace the Eighth Amendment to the Declaration in its entirety, which was recorded on June 17, 2011 in Deed Book 8195 Page 1761; and

WHEREAS, the provisions of this Eleventh Amendment are not intended to strike, supersede or replace a different Eighth Amendment to the Declaration, which was recorded on March 1, 2011 in Deed Book 8133 Page 726 and shall remain in effect in its entirety; and

WHEREAS, a list of the Uniform Parcel Identifier Numbers for the Units is attached hereto, and incorporated, in this Eleventh Amendment as Exhibit "A"; and

WHEREAS, the foregoing recitals are, and are intended to be and remain, part of and incorporated in this Eleventh Amendment;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED THAT, the Declaration is hereby amended through the adoption of this Eleventh Amendment as follows:

- I. Article III of the Declaration, Section 3.01 o. entitled "Definitions - Limited Common Element" and Section 3.01 r. entitled "Definitions - Limited Controlled Facility" are hereby stricken and removed from the Declaration and the Eighth Amendment, and superseded and replaced for all purposes with new Article III of the Declaration, Section 3.01 o. entitled "Definitions - Limited Common Element" and Section 3.01 r. entitled "Definitions - Limited Controlled Facility," as follows:

Article III

Section 3.01. Definitions.

o. "Limited Common Element" - will mean and refer to those parts or portions of the Common Elements, if any, which may be located immediately adjacent to a Unit as may be shown on the Plan, and which are also intended or designated for the exclusive use of an Owner or Owners, as well as any part or portion of the Common Elements which by nature of the manner of the way it is now used, or may hereafter be used, is enjoyed or used by one or a few of the Units, but less than all of the Units. In general the Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, inspect, repair, or replace Limited Common Elements. In the Association, the Limited Common Elements are those portions of the Association and Units listed within Exhibit "D" - Limited Common Elements, which are attached to the Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration, as amended from time to time.

r. "Limited Controlled Facility" - shall mean the portion of the Controlled Facilities, other than Controlled Facilities which are themselves part of a Unit, allocated by or pursuant to the Declaration or the Uniform Planned Community Act for the exclusive use of one or more, but fewer than all of the Units. In general the Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, inspect, repair, or replace Limited Controlled Facilities. The Unit Owner has the responsibility to maintain, repair, and replace all Limited Controlled Facilities. In the Association, the Limited Controlled Facilities are those portions of the Association and Units listed within Exhibit "J" - Controlled Facilities and Limited Controlled Facilities, which are attached to the Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration, as amended from time to time.

II. Article XIII of the Declaration, Section 13.01 c. entitled "Unit Owner Obligations - Assessment Obligation" is hereby stricken and removed from the Declaration and the Eighth Amendment, and superseded and replaced for all purposes with new Article XIII of the Declaration, Section 13.01 c. entitled "Unit Owner Obligations - Assessment Obligation," as follows:

c. The Association shall have the right to assess as Limited Common Expenses charges against any one or more Units to provide services which are exclusively for such Units including, but not limited to, the improvement and maintenance of any Limited Common Elements and Limited Controlled Facilities used principally by or benefitting the Owners of such Units.

III. Declaration Exhibit "D" (Common and Limited Common Facilities), Declaration Exhibit "D" (Limited Common Elements), and the Eighth Amendment to the Declaration Exhibit "J" (Controlled Facilities and Limited Controlled Facilities) are hereby stricken and removed from the Declaration and the Eighth Amendment, and superseded and replaced for all purposes with new Exhibits "D" and "J" to the Declaration, as follows:

EXHIBIT D
Limited Common Elements

Limited Common Elements shall mean a portion of the Common Elements that are reserved for the exclusive use of one or more, but fewer than all units. Limited Common Elements are defined in the Declaration at Article III, Section 3.01. In general the Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, inspect, repair, or replace Limited Common Elements.

Walkways to Individual Units. The walkways serving individual Units will be Limited Common Elements owned by Unit Owners and for the exclusive benefit of the Units appurtenant thereto. The Association shall be responsible to remove snow from the walkways to the individual Units only. The cost for snow removal shall be a General Common Expense. The Unit Owner has the sole responsibility for maintenance, repair and replacement of any walkway to the individual Unit. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility, to maintain, repair, or replace any walkway to the individual Unit. If the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any walkway to the individual Unit, the Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any walkway to the individual Unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Payment by the Unit shall be made to the Association as a Limited Common Expense.

Steps to Individual Units, Porches and Entrance Landing. The steps to an individual Unit's porch, railing, entrance columns, posts and entrance landing serving individual Units will be Limited Common Elements owned by Unit Owners and for the exclusive benefit of the Units appurtenant thereto. The Association shall be responsible to remove snow from the steps, porch and entrance landing. The cost for snow removal shall be a General Common Expense. The Unit Owner has the sole responsibility for maintenance, repair and replacement of any steps, porch, railing and entrance columns, post, and landing to the individual Unit. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace any steps, porch, railing and entrance column, post, and landing to the individual Unit. If the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any steps, porch, railing, and entrance columns, post and landing to the individual Unit, the Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any steps, porch, railing, and entrance columns, post and landing to the individual Unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Payment by the Unit Owner shall be made to the Association as a Limited Common Expense. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors.

Driveways. The driveways serving individual Units will be Limited Common Elements owned by Unit Owners and for the exclusive benefit of the Units appurtenant thereto. The Association shall be responsible to remove snow from the driveways. The cost for snow removal shall be a General Common Expense. The Unit Owner has the sole responsibility for maintenance, repair and replacement of driveways to the individual Unit. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace any driveway to the individual Unit. If the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any driveway to the individual Unit, the Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any driveway to the individual Unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Payment by the Unit Owner shall be made to the Association as a Limited Common Expense. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors.

Party Walls/Demising Walls. Party walls or demising walls shared by one or more Units shall be Limited Common Elements for the exclusive benefit of the Units appurtenant thereto. Party walls and demising walls, including the structural support of same, will be owned by the Unit Owners, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace any party wall or demising wall. If the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any party wall or demising wall of the individual unit or units, the Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any party wall or demising wall of the individual Unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance and safety of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Payment by the Unit Owner shall be made to the Association as a Limited Common Expense. Unit Owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace their respective party walls and demising walls with original manufacturer materials, size and colors. Unit owners also agree to assist and be cooperative with adjoining unit owners when a party wall or demising wall is shared by one or more units, including granting reasonable access to the party wall or demising wall, structural supports and other portions of the party wall or demising wall. Should an adjoining Unit Owner fail to permit reasonable access to their party wall or demising wall, structural supports and/or other portions of the party wall and demising wall, the Executive Board may fine the Unit Owner the maximum amount of fine then permissible under the Association's Rules and Regulations and/or seek injunctive relief from the Court of Common Pleas together with all costs, legal fees, management fees and other incidentals against the non-cooperating adjoining Unit Owner.

Exhibit J
Controlled Facilities and Limited Controlled Facilities

Limited Controlled Facilities are a portion of the Controlled Facilities, other than Controlled Facilities which are themselves part of a Unit, allocated by or pursuant to the Declaration or the Uniform Planned Community Act for the exclusive use of one or more, but fewer than all of the Units. Limited Controlled Facilities are defined in the Declaration at Article III, Section 3.01.

In general the Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, inspect, repair, or replace Limited Controlled Facilities. The Unit Owner has the responsibility to maintain, repair, and replace all Limited Controlled Facilities. If the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any of the Limited Controlled Facilities upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail, the Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace all Limited Controlled Facilities as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement of all Limited Controlled Facilities shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Payment by the Unit Owner shall be made to the Association as a Limited Common Expense.

The Limited Controlled Facilities in the Community include, but not limited to the following:

Roofs on the Buildings. The roof, including the structural support of same, all sheathing and under layers, skylights and all roof finishes, shall be Limited Controlled Facilities that will be owned by the Unit Owners, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace any roof on the buildings. If the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any roof of the individual unit, the Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any roof of the individual Unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Payment by the Unit Owner shall be made to the Association as a Limited Common Expense. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors. Unit owners also agree to assist and be cooperative with adjoining unit owners when a roof is shared by one or more units, including granting reasonable access to the roof, structural supports and other portions of the roof. Should an adjoining Unit Owner fail to permit reasonable access to their roof, structural supports and/or other portions of the roof, the Executive Board may fine the Unit Owner the maximum amount of fine then permissible under the Association's Rules and Regulations and/or seek injunctive relief from the Court of Common Pleas together with all costs, legal fees, management fees and other incidentals against the non-cooperating adjoining Unit Owner.

Gutters and Downspouts. All gutters and downspouts on each Building shall be Limited Controlled Facilities that will be owned by the Unit Owners, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace any gutter and downspout if the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace the gutters and downspouts. The Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any gutter or downspout to the individual unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors. Unit owners also agree to assist and cooperate with adjoining unit owners when a gutter and downspout is shared by one or more units, including granting reasonable access to the roof, structural supports, gutters, downspouts and other portions of the roof. Should an adjoining Unit Owner fail to permit reasonable access to their roof, structural supports, gutters, downspouts and/or other portions of the roof, the Executive Board may fine the Unit Owner the maximum amount of fine then permissible under the Association's Rules and Regulations and/or seek injunctive relief from the Court of Common Pleas together with all costs, legal fees, management fees and other incidentals against the non-cooperating adjoining Unit Owner.

Exterior Façade. The flashing, exterior siding/trim, soffits, stone veneer / exterior treatment, all wood trim, and chimney exteriors ("Exterior Façade Elements") shall be Limited Controlled Facilities that will be owned by the Unit Owners, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace the exterior façade, or siding including power washing. If the unit owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace the exterior façade of the individual Unit, the Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace the exterior facade to the individual unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors. Unit owners also agree to assist and be cooperative with adjoining unit owners when the exterior façade is shared by one or more units, including granting reasonable access to the exterior facade and other portions of the Unit. Should an adjoining Unit Owner fail to permit reasonable access to their exterior facade and/or other portions of the Unit, the Executive Board may fine the Unit Owner the maximum amount of fine then permissible under the Association's Rules and Regulations and/or seek injunctive relief from the Court of Common Pleas together with all costs, legal fees, management fees and other incidentals against the non-cooperating adjoining Unit Owner.

Exterior Doors, Lights, Windows, Skylights and Garage Doors. The exterior front door, back door, deck doors, exterior lighting, windows, skylights and garage doors, including storm doors installed by the homeowner with Executive Board approval through an Architectural Change Request, shall be Limited Controlled Facilities that will be owned by the Unit Owners, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace any exterior doors, lighting and garage doors, including painting if the unit owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any exterior doors, lighting, windows, skylights and garage doors of the individual unit. The Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any exterior front door, back door, deck doors, exterior lighting, windows, skylights and garage doors to the individual unit, including storm doors installed by the homeowner with Executive Board approval through an Architectural Change Request, as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors.

Patio/Decks and Awnings. Patios, Decks and Awnings shall be Limited Controlled Facilities that will be owned by the Unit Owners, including stones under the deck and weed mat, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace any patio, deck or awning if the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace any patio, deck or awning of the individual Unit. The Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace any patio, deck or awning to the individual Unit, including power washing and including awnings installed by the homeowner with Executive Board approval through an Architectural Change Request, as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/ or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors. Unit owners also agree to assist and be cooperative with adjoining unit owners when a deck party wall is shared by one or more units, including granting reasonable access to the deck party wall and other portions of the Unit. Should an adjoining Unit Owner fail to permit reasonable access to their deck party wall and/or other portions of the Unit, the Executive Board may fine the Unit Owner the maximum amount of fine then permissible under the Association's Rules and Regulations and/or seek injunctive relief from the Court of Common Pleas together with all costs, legal fees, management fees and other incidentals against the non-cooperating adjoining Unit Owner. Declaration Article XV, Occupancy and Use Restrictions Section, Section 15.01 z., Special Provisions Concerning Decks, remains unchanged and in full force and effect.

Sanitary Sewer Facilities. Sanitary sewer facilities lines (lateral lines connecting Units to the sewer main) shall be Limited Controlled Facilities that will be owned by the Unit Owners, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right, but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace the lateral sewer line to any buildings if the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace the lateral line to the individual Unit. The Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace a lateral sewer line to the individual Unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors.

Water Utility Lines. Water facilities lines (lateral lines connecting Units to the water main) shall be Limited Controlled Facilities that will be owned by the Unit Owners, and will be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Unit Owners. The Association shall have the right but not the responsibility to maintain, repair, or replace the water lateral line to any buildings if the Unit Owner fails or refuses to maintain, repair or replace the water lateral line to the individual Unit. The Executive Board of the Association shall have the right to maintain, repair, or replace a lateral sewer line to the individual Unit as part of a plan to maintain the appearance of the community upon written notification to do so from the Association with at least ten (10) days notice provided by ordinary mail. Should the Executive Board elect to exercise its right, the cost of such maintenance, repair, and/or replacement shall be assessed against the Unit Owner who receives the benefit, including any applicable management firm and/or legal fees generated in conjunction therewith. Unit owners agree and assume the responsibility to replace with original manufacturer materials, size and colors.

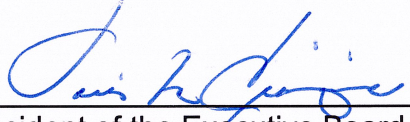

- IV. The Officers of the Executive Board of the Association, are authorized to sign this Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration pursuant to Article XIX, Section 19.01 f. and file it in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Chester County.
- V. Except as may be stated herein, this Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration shall be and become effective when it is filed in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Chester County.

- VI. The headings used in this Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration are for reference purposes only. The headings are not substantive provisions.
- VII. The provisions of this Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration shall amend and control over the contrary provisions, if any, of the Declaration, Amendments thereto, as well as the Bylaws of the Association and the Rules and Regulations of the Association.
- VIII. Except as amended by this Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration, the Declaration, as amended, is hereby ratified and reaffirmed by the Association, the Executive Board and the Owners.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and Owners holding not less than sixty-seven (67%) percent of the votes in the Association having voted or agreed in writing to the adoption of this Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration of Woodledge at Whitford Hills, A Planned Community, and have authorized and directed the appropriate officers of the Association to sign this Eleventh Amendment to the Declaration of Woodledge at Whitford Hills, A Planned Community, and to promptly file it in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Chester County, PA.
